Cheering for Coins

The Coin Recognition Game

3 or 4 play the game
Make 2 sets of each coin
2 sets of Pom Pom cards

*1 page I Love to Cheer for Coins Cards for security so kiddos cannot see through cards while playing.

Print the "Cheerleader" coin cards.

The Pom Pom cards mean "Your turn is done".

Spread all cards out on the table. Students take turns choosing the coin cards. If the student can identify the coin, he or she may keep it and continue drawing until he or she doesn't know a coin or gets a pom pom card.

Students also keep pom pom cards.

At the end of the game, the student with the most cards is the winner.

For a whole class to play, make each game in a different color so it is easy to separate, store, and keep organized.

I also have each kiddo use a plate to keep their game pieces together and separated from their table partners.

The Money Song

Each day during the morning meeting we sing

Dr. Jean's Money Song from the

CD Is Everybody Happy?

Money Song

(Tune: "Shortnin' Bread")

Chorus:

I like money to buy things at the store.

Money, money, money, I always want more!

A penny's worth one cent.

A nickel's worth five.

A dime's worth ten cents.

A quarter's twenty-five. Chorus

Lincoln's on one cent.

Jefferson's on five.

Roosevelt's on ten cents.

Washington's on twenty-five. Chorus

A building's on one cent.

A building's on five.

A torch is on ten cents.

An eagle's on twenty-five.

I Know my Coins

Penny 1¢

Nickel 5¢

Dime 10¢

Quarter 25¢

Classroom Money Chart

I like having the chart on a tag board because I can move it around the classroom so it is always convenient to the kiddos when they are playing money games.
